

COUNTY LOCAL OPTION BILL HAS EASY SAILING

Rose Bill Passes the House Without Amendment by a Vote of 79 to 36

Galleries Jammed to Hear Debate---Bill Becomes Effective September 1---Awaits the Governor's Signature.

Columbus, Feb. 27.—The Rose county local option bill passed the House without amendment Wednesday afternoon by a vote of 79 to 36.

There were five absentees, four of whom were compelled to be away either on account of sickness or death and one of whom, Dr. Nye, of Pike county, states that he was called out just as the roll call was about to start, by a friend in the corridor. The vote was conclusive, decisive and unmistakable.

The bill passed the Senate several weeks ago by a vote of 24 to 13. It now becomes a law as soon as the governor attaches his signature or without that signature in 10 days unless he vetoes it. But the governor will promptly sign it.

Under the provisions of the measure the law does not become operative, that is to say, no county, option petitions may be presented, until after September 1.

Thirty-five per cent of the electors of any county may petition for an election on the question of eliminating the saloons within that county. The election must then be called within 30 days by the proper officials, and if a majority of the voters vote "dry" the saloons must go out of business in that particular county.

Not an amendment was secured to the bill, although several were offered and impassioned speeches were made in support of them. Yea and nay votes taken on these proposed amendments made it plain from the start that the Rose bill would pass by a big majority. There was no party lineup either on the preliminary test votes or on the final vote. Four Republicans voted against the bill and some Democrats for it. The following are the members who finally voted for the passage of the bill:

Ackley, Aiken, Anderson, Bassett, Bishop, Briggs, Bronson, Burnett, Chamberlain, Cosgrave, Crawford, Crist, Demuth, Dever, Dittmars, Eley, Elson, Ervin, of Meigs, Freiner, Fritzel, Gaston, Grinnell, Grover, Guthrie, Harlan, Harper, Hatfield, Hawkins, Hitch, Holmes, Jones, Judy, Justice, Keller, Lehman, Lersch, Little, Lowry, Lybarger, McCord, McCadden, McGinnin, McLaughlin, Martin, Minter, Mooney, Neely, O'Rourke, Paine, Pears, Pumphrey, Reed, Ritter, Roberts, Roil, Schur, Shankland, Shuler, Smith, of Wyandotte, Spicer, Stephenson, Stewart of Fairfield, Stewart of Clark, Stuke, Thomas Thompson, Trott, Van Dusen, Watson, Wertz, White, Wilson, Woodburn, Woods, Yost, Eagleson—79.

Those who voted against the bill were: Adler, Bense, Billingslea, Bowers, Braun, Burkhardt, Conroy, Corlett, Diehl, Foster, Goll, Hill, Hillenkamp, Howard, Hunt, Jessup, Kealy, Kehnast, Kolinsky, Maulberger, Meyer, Miller, Mulac, Paxton, Pettit, Reynolds of Cuyahoga, Reynolds of Franklin, Rolf, Sawicki, Smith of Cuyahoga, Smith of Marion, Spangler, Stockwell, Welker, Winters and Wynne—36.

Those not voting were: Mr. Metzgar of Cuyahoga county, who was absent because of his wife's illness; Mr. Moon of Clinton county, who was kept at home by reason of the death of his father; Mr. Nye of Pike county, who states that he was called away to see a friend in the lobby just as the vote was about to be taken; Mr. Phillips of Geauga county, who is at home sick; and Mr. Finkler of Ross, who is also ill. Of the absentees all but one, Mr. Metzgar, would probably have voted for the bill had they been present. This would have made the vote 83 to 37.

The announcement that the Rose bill was to be taken up by the House Wednesday created a great deal of interest in the legislative proceedings, and at 10 o'clock in the morning the galleries began to fill, although the House was not to convene until half past one.

The north gallery was almost entirely filled before 11 o'clock, and the attention of Mr. Biggs, chairman of the temperance committee, was called to the matter and the statement made to him that the liquor interests were endeavoring to "pack" the gallery. There was no proof of this, but an order was nevertheless issued to clear the gallery.

From that time on there was a scolding crowd in the rotunda and the corridors of the state house. Men and women fought to get up to the closed doors leading to the galleries. All sorts of excuses were made by those seeking admittance to gain the advantage of the position. The doorkeeper, as the time for the session to begin approached, were compelled to close and lock the big doors to prevent being overwhelmed. When permission was finally given to enter the galleries the rush was exciting and in ten minutes every available inch of space was occupied, while hundreds were still outside clamoring for admittance.

The bill was called shortly after 3 o'clock, after a talk by Representative Hill. Mr. Little of Green, demanded a call of the House.

The vote followed and when the result was announced and a motion to reconsider was lost, the galleries broke into applause that Speaker Eagleson could not stop. But it didn't last long and the galleries were soon emptied.

The result of the vote was not a surprise. Several members counted against it voted in the affirmative, and one or two who were thought to be friendly to it lined up with the opposition.

Of the 36 votes registered against the Rose bill, 31 were cast by Democrats, four by Republicans and one by Mr. Hillenkamp, Independent. The four Republicans who voted in the negative were Carl Braun of Franklin county, Elijah Hill of Columbiana, Dick Reynolds of Franklin, and Jas. Welker of Stark.

Of the 79 who voted in favor of the measure 24 were Democrats, 34 Republicans and one Independent, Mr. O'Rourke of Lucas. Among the Republicans voting for the bill was Speaker Eagleson, who usually does not vote except in case of a tie, but who desired to be recorded in favor of the bill.

The ceremony was performed by his grace, Archbishop Farley, assisted by Monsignor Fisher of the Philadelphia church of the bride, St. John's. JENNIE I. BLUNT, LEAVING BROOKLYN COURT JAIL

New York, Feb. 27.—To avenge an alleged wrong done her, Jennie I. Blunt twice shot Charles M. Sanford, a lawyer at his office at No. 23 Court street, Brooklyn. After her arrest she made contradictory statements, which led to the belief that she was not responsible. Her victim, while in a critical condition in the Brooklyn hospital, made a statement to the coroner in which he denied her charges and said he had tried to aid her. When the police undertook to remove Miss Blunt to the Adams street station, they had to call out the reserves to handle the crowd, which partly filled Borough Hall square. A dozen mounted and several foot policemen formed a square and, with Miss Blunt in the center, they fought their way through the crowd to the station house. Arraigned before Magistrate Steers, the woman threw out her hands dramatically and cried: "These hands have at last killed Charles M. Sanford."

MR. ASHBROOK'S PENSION BILLS PASS SENATE

Three Licking County Measures to Credit of Congressman—Newark
Postoffice Appropriation.

Congressman Ashbrook is paying special attention to the soldiers and the results attained thus far go to show that the Seventeenth district's representative is a man who "does things." A message from Washington brings the news that three of Mr. Ashbrook's special pension bills for Licking county applicants have just passed the senate. One is for Mrs. Harriet Hickey, a widow of a soldier in the war of 1812, increasing her pension from $12 to $24 per month; another for Mrs. Jane Bain, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Marple, on West Main street, this city. Her son was in the Spanish-American war and Mr. Ashbrook obtained for her a mother's dependent pension by special act at the rate of $12 per month. The third was to Benjamin J. Haynes, a blind man of Utica, whose pension is increased from $12 to $24.

This is doing pretty well for Licking county and is doing pretty well for a new member of congress. The indications are that Mr. Ashbrook will far exceed the record of his predecessor in congress, who claimed to be the only friend the soldier ever had. As announced in this paper Wednesday, Mr. Ashbrook has secured a recommendation of an increase of $10,000 in the Newark postoffice appropriation, making the amount $100,000 instead of $90,000, and if a site acceptable to the government is found in the city it is practically certain that Newark will get her federal building. The Newark Board of Trade is at work on the proposition and the board will have the hearty cooperation and assistance of Mr. Ashbrook, the alert and capable member of Congress from this district.

RESULTING IN MURDER

New Hampshire Mystery Cleared by Woman's Confession

Warrant Issued for Roy's Arrest and Forwarded to Paris.

Paris, Feb. 27.—The police of this city have received from New York a warrant for the arrest of Paul Roy on the charge of murder. This charge was made by Roy's wife, an American actress, known as Glacia Calla, who declares that he murdered her brother, George A. Carkins, early in January, in New Hampshire. The warrant has not yet been served. The French law does not permit the extradition of French citizens, but provides for their trial and punishment in France for crimes committed abroad.

Miss Carkins lived in Paris several years ago with her aunt, the Baroness Von Orendorff. She was an one time engaged to Count de Beynao. Her talent, wealth and beauty gave her access to exclusive circles. She finally rented a villa at Etretat and met Paul Roy, after which, according to her friends, her misery began.

Yesterday afternoon Paul Roy gave out a statement from his father's home at Neuilly, but he would not comment on the allegations against him made by his wife. Roy says he was married to Miss Carkins in Boston, at the City Hall, on October 2, 1907. After the marriage, at which there were no witnesses, the couple went to Newington, N. H., and lived in the country house of his wife. After visiting relatives on January 2 Roy and his wife returned home and had dinner in company with Mrs. Roy's brother, George A. Carkins. "After dinner we planned to go over to Greenland to attend a concert," Roy goes on to say.

"My wife left the room to dress herself, returning shortly in a beautiful costume and wearing a large hat. I told her the hat was too large to ride

Preparations are being made to rush troops out of Cincinnati in case of trouble.

THOUGHTS ON BUSINESS

BY
WALDO PONDRAY WARREN
SUGAR-COATED LIES

I HAVE read several good articles lately exposing the pernicious philosophy expressed in Ingalls' famous sonnet, "Opportunity." According to this poem, Opportunity is "master of human destinies," and "knocks unbidden once at every gate." If the call is unheard or unheeded it says that you are "condemned to failure, penury and woe," and that you will "seek in vain and uselessly implore" this myth which "answers not and returns no more."

Of course no thinking man would believe that; but probably a good many people believe it because they do not think—because they swallowed this pretty pill and tasted only the poetry that outside. But there can be no good, and possibly a great deal of harm, in giving the poem further circulation. Just the other day I saw it printed as a frontispiece in an advertising booklet for a manufacturing concern. I think it was the day before that I saw it printed on the front cover of an employees' magazine, issued by one of the largest mercantile concerns. Trade papers often use it for a filler, and thousands of beautifully printed copies of the poem hang on the walls of homes and offices. And yet it contains a bit of false philosophy, which, if actually believed, would warp the careers of thousands of men and women. The truth is that Opportunity knocks not merely once but a thousand times—is knocking all the time.

Many such sugar-coated lies are being thoughtlessly spread abroad through various channels.

A novel and successful method of catching rabbits is being used by hunters in the northern part of the state. The hunter uses a piece of half inch board about ten feet long, a horn that will make a loud noise is inserted into one end, then the hole with the horn first is forced into the rabbit hole. WOULD-CONTEST WILL

GUARDIAN BRINGS SUIT TO RECALL WILL OF FRANCIS POWERS ANNULLED.

Alimony Decision Rendered by Judge Brister—Court of Common Pleas—Real Estate Transfers.

The case of Helen Battee, guardian of L. F. Powers against John E. Powers and others, was before the court and jury Thursday afternoon. This is an action brought to contest the will of Francis M. Powers. After the death of Mr. Powers a will purporting to have been executed March 5, 1898, was produced and admitted to probate. The contestants claim that this was not the last will and testament of the deceased, but that some three or four years after that date he executed another will, which other or second will, revoked the will of 1898, and that the subsequent will was in fact, the last will and testament of the deceased. Kibler & Montgomery and Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for the plaintiff, and Swart and Fitzgibbon for the defendant.

Alimony Case.

A hearing was had in the Probate court Thursday on application of Stella Stone, defendant, for alimony in the divorce case of Sylvanus Stone against Stella Stone. Fitzgibbon and Norpell represented the plaintiff and Swythe & Smythe appeared for Stella Stone. The case has been brought twice before in the Probate court and once in the Common Pleas court and dismissed. Plaintiff offered to prove that the defendant had not been living a proper life and was not entitled to temporary alimony. The court held that the merits of the case could not be gone into for temporary alimony, and all that could be shown in the present application was the necessity of the defendant for the alimony and the ability of the plaintiff to pay it. The court ordered that plaintiff to pay defendant's attorneys $25 and to pay defendant herself $20 per month. The case was set down for hearing on its merits on next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Common Pleas Court.

TARIFF AND THE TRUSTS.

Former Governor William D. Douglas, of Massachusetts, who understands the tariff question better, perhaps, than any other man in this country, declares that the "trust busting" business as conducted at Washington, is farcical; that neither policies nor the methods of President Roosevelt are right. He believes that those policies and methods are intended to accomplish results in the interest not of the people, but of the trusts. Gov. Douglas thinks as other Democrats do, that the only possible remedy for trust rule, is to revise the tariff which enables trusts to monopolize the market.

HELPING THE TRUSTS AND CORPORATIONS

The National Civic Federation is arranging for a delegation from Chicago of twenty-five members to attend the public hearings to be held before the Judiciary Committee of Congress on March 6. The object of the Federation is to approve proposed changes in the anti-trust laws, "so as to permit what are really harmless combinations." The railroads and trusts would thus be able legally to enter into freight and passenger agreements and labor contracts. The Federation is controlled by Republicans, and it would seem that the Republican leaders in Congress want some appearance of business backing before they act favorably on the bills now in the hands of the committees. So instead of tightening the law to control the trusts and corporations it is the evident intention of the Republican majority of Congress to give them more leeway. The only hope for the people is that the fear of the coming election may prevent the Republicans from helping out the trusts and corporations.

AN ELECTION PRIMER

Pertinent Points About Our Election Machinery For New Voters and Old

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

When did the Democratic party first appear in national politics? Under its present name the party first appeared in 1828, when Andrew Jackson was elected president as the party candidate. The Democratic party, however, so far as its chief principles go, dates from the beginning of the republic.

Who is regarded as the party's founder? Thomas Jefferson. When the constitution of the United States was under discussion in convention the opposing theories of Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton constituted the principal difference of opinion. Jefferson and his adherents leaned far toward local self government, while Hamilton and his faction stood for a strong centralized government. In after years the Jeffersonian theories became crystallized into what was called at first the Republican party, later the Republican-Democratic party and finally the Democratic party.

The present Republican party, then, is entirely distinct from the one of Jefferson's time? Entirely so. It is descended, through the Whig party, from the Hamiltonian or Federalist party, which took the opposite view to that of Jefferson.

What presidents has the Democracy elected? Thomas Jefferson twice, James Madison twice, James Monroe twice, John Quincy Adams, Andrew Jackson twice, Martin Van Buren, James K. Polk, Franklin Pierce, James Buchanan, Grover Cleveland twice.

What is the Democratic party's position as to tariff? It stands for a low tariff or a tariff for revenue only

AMUSEMENTS

THE RAJAH OF BHONG.

At the Auditorium on Saturday matinee and night, will be presented the new and elaborate production of the latest musical comedy, "The Rajah of Bhong," one of the many New York successes. It is replete with new features and numbers, both musical and of a dancing nature, and to the favorites who interpreted the piece last year have been added new faces, both among the comedians and the chorus. "The Rajah of Bhong" contains such a wealth of material as goes into the usual make up of a musical comedy that it undoubtedly promises plenty of good entertainment. Seats on sale Friday. Seats reserved at the matinee.

THE TIME, THE PLACE, THE GIRL.

The "Time" is tonight, the "Place" is the Weller theater at Zanesville, and every Newark theater goer is anxious to see the "Girl." The grand rush which usually attends the announcement of a sale at several of the more popular bargain counters in Zanesville has gone down into history, but the crush for tickets at this Weller theater on Monday when the advance sale for "The Time, the Place and the Girl," opened was fully as exciting. It is really remarkable the way this play has gained popularity through reputation. Many have already seen the breezy musical play during its long run in Chicago, Boston and New York, and have not hesitated to pronounce it one of the very best seen in recent years. "It is real comedy, a delightful chorus with musical numbers that are whistly, that will be at the Weller tonight.

AT THE ORPHAN.

The Zemo-Zemo troupe is making a big hit at the family theater this week. The troupe is composed of five real acrobatic artists, to be seen in interesting gymnastic feats. The trick dog is a little favorite in the circle-box foot balancing trick.

JUVENILE POLITICS

Exhibited by Republican Youngsters in the House.

GIVEN TWO SCARES THIS WEEK

Democrats Frightened Them Into Lining Up Against Governor and President On the Eve of the Great Convention Which is to Endorse the Policies of Both—in the Multiplicity of Probes There is Much Publicity.

Columbus, O., Feb. 27.—(Special)—This week the Democrats in the house have had some fun at the expense of the Republican side. The Republicans of the house are so fearful that they will make a political blunder by accepting anything which comes from the Democratic side that they made several blunders this week. For any Democratic member to spring a proposition unexpectedly is signal for a hurry call in the smoking room and committees to fly to the rescue because those desperate Democrats are trying to do something again.

While the Democratic side lacks cohesion and unity of action the Republican side lacks competent leadership. The Republican majority has the cohesiveness and willingness to stand together despite factional differences, but its leadership is so childish and full of fear as to actually belong to the kindergarten class of juvenile politics. The young men who are in control apparently do not know what to do at times, and the elderly men either do not know or do not care, but all feel that it is safe when in doubt to "line up against the Democrats."

The most ludicrous exhibit of such childishness was when the Republican administration's tax amendment, which has passed the senate, was called up in the house this week.

SENATOR HAFNER of Cincinnati.

The resolution carries the name of Senator Gayman (D) as its author. That was enough to set off the fire alarm on the Republican side. The motion to put the resolution on the calendar as a special order was made by Mr. Paxton (D), which was another alarming circumstance. Short talks on the Democratic side in favor of having the resolution acted on by the Republican convention actually put the Republicans in a frenzy. They gathered in excited little groups and talked it over with bated breath. Not knowing the right thing to do to "stand by the administration," they concluded it was safe to "line up against the Democrats" again, and so they defeated the motion on the ground that "the farmers are against the amendment."

It took Governor Harris and Attorney General Ellis two hours next day to get the fright quelled and to convince the hysterical Republican members that they had actually voted against the chief measure being advocated by the man whose administration they are going to "endorse with pride" next week and honor with the nomination for governor. After much suasion they voted when the resolution was called up again to make it a special order for Thursday afternoon.

Snickering in his sleeves, Mr. Stockwell threw the Republican majority in the house into a worse panic when Mr. Chamberlain's shipping rate bill came up for passage. Mr. Chamberlain is the youthful Republican floor leader, and his bill seeks to authorize the state railroad commission to make some changes in the present rate provisions desired by the Ohio Shippers' association. Mr. Stockwell got in an amendment to provide that when a rate is fixed by the commission it shall stand as the rate until finally reviewed and passed upon by the courts. He followed that up with an amendment authorizing the commission to consider the physical value of the property of railways as a basis for rate making. That caused an attack of heart disease on the Republican side. Mr. Chamberlain objected to the indignity of his sacred rate bill being amended by Democrats in ways he did not understand. Mr. Frizzell, his colleague from Dayton, thought it wrong to inject amendments into a bill which just suited the author and "those interested." Mr. Stockwell quoted from President Roosevelt's messages, urging the very same kind of legislation in Congress. A cry of distress was sent to the smokers' and the committee rooms. Republican members rushed to the floor and gathered in groups about Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Frizzell and others, who were excitedly explaining what new mischief the Democrats were trying to do. A roll call was demanded. Not knowing what to do, the Republicans "lined up against the Democrats" again, Democrats voting are made the Republicans fairly scream to vote nay. The amendment was defeated. Then Mr. Chamberlain wanted to reconsider it, too. Democrats demanded a call of the house to bring in absentees. Frantic with alarm by this time a motion was made on the Republican side to adjourn, which carried. What tickled the Democrats so much and caused them to laugh out loud when certain ardent Taft and Roosevelt Republicans voted nay, was that the Republican members were voting almost solidly against President Roosevelt's policies, and next week they are going to endorse Roosevelt and all he stands for, besides endorsing Taft for president, because he stands for Roosevelt policies.

These two incidents positively were the most laughable and most ludicrous performances so far this session.

The defeat of the Minter bill to prohibit the manufacture and sale of cigars also had a funny episode. After it was amended so as to forbid smoking by minors, Representative Paxton caused a roar of laughter by declaring that it was another Tom Johnson measure and ought to be defeated. Of course, that was only a bit of frivolity, but it took, and the bill was defeated by a vote of 47 ayes to 35 nays.

It seems to be necessary only to quote Tom Johnson and President Roosevelt to kill anything in the house.

Senator Hafner of Cincinnati got the senate in an uproar when he moved that Senators Arbenz and Huffman be added to the temperance committee. A rule requires that senate committees shall have at least seven members. So far the temperance committee on that side has had but five members. A waggish newspaper writer's memorandum for the press run stated that Mr. Hafner's motion was "made during confusion, so that many members did not understand it" resulted in the motion being carried by a viva voce vote. It would have been more nearly correct to have put it that Mr. Hafner's motion made during confusion caused more confusion. The temperance senators were wild. They declared that an undue advantage had been taken of them. They besieged President Williams and he told them they could bring up the matter again by moving to reconsider. Instead of calling in the absentees the motion to reconsider was made at once by Senator Lamb, and it was defeated by a vote of 15 to 14, which clinched the addition of Arbenz and Huffman to the senate temperance committee.

Senator Hafner gave the senate a complete surprise when he resigned from the Cincinnati probe committee created under the original resolution by Senator Espy. He stated that his reasons for retiring from the committee were that there was some adverse criticism of having a Cincinnati man on the committee. His resignation was accepted.

This paved the way for the resolution offered by Mr. Espy to rescind the action whereby the Cincinnati probe committee was created, which carried unanimously. The senate's reason for this action was to manifest its dissatisfaction with the members of the committee named by Speaker Eagleson on the part of the house.

Then came the resolution to create a new commission to consist of four members, Senators Berry (D) and Russell (R) on the part of the senate, and Representatives White (D) and Shankland (R) on the part of the house. The purpose of naming the commission in the resolution was to prevent Speaker Eagleson selecting the house members of the committee. The resolution will come up for consideration in its regular order.

Probing is going on vigorously at the state treasury by the senate committee. Treasurer McKinnon requested the committee to postpone its work until after the state convention because his chief deputy, Charles G. Green of Columbiana county, is a candidate for nomination to succeed him. But the committee felt that the time to probe had come, inasmuch as Mr. McKinnon brought on the probing by his resistance to the request of the house for information concerning the state's moneys, and went to work.

Senator Meek was given a grilling examination by the committee probing his charges against the state school department, then adjourned for two weeks. This carries the investigation over till after the state convention, which would be a blow at Meek's candidacy for school commissioner if he had any chance at all for the nomination. It probably hasn't injured his chances, because he is not on the slate of the Cox-Taft Brown organization.

The penitentiary probe will be next in order, the resolution having passed both houses. The probes are Ward (D) of Cleveland, Huffman (D) of Butler county, and Lower (R) of Ashland county, on the part of the senate; Ritter (R) of Miami county, Frizzell (R) of Dayton, and Neely (D) of Auglaize county, on the part of the house.

So much probing suggests a duty the people of Ohio owe to themselves when they go to the polls next November.

Receives the same careful attention as the largest on the books. The aggregate of many small accounts makes a considerable sum. (We have over 3500 depositors.) Besides, our observation and experience lead us to expect that an account starting small soon grows to larger proportions. Hundreds of people have come to us for loans on homes who received their start through small savings accounts.

We loan only on real estate, first liens, which means absolute security.

MRS. HAMILTON POST'S MOTHER 90 YEARS OLD

EVENT PROPERLY CELEBRATED
BY FRIENDS ON MONDAY AT BROWNSVILLE.

Aged Hostess Made an Address That Pleased All—Sketch Read by Mr. Cook.

Brownsville, O., Feb. 27.—The 90th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Mary Hamilton was marked by a pleasant gathering of neighbors, friends and members of Hamilton Post on the 24th inst. Mrs. Hamilton is an honorary member of the Post and is known by the veterans as "Mother." She almost invariably attends the Post's quarterly meetings.

Besides the veterans and nearby friends present this week were Rev. Freeman Prior and wife of Columbus, Rev. Mr. Barnes of Columbus, Rev. Mr. Bowden, Dr. J. Cooperider, Dr. A. P. Bell of Zanesville and others.

Addresses were made by a number of visitors, and music was furnished, Mr. C. Cook leading the singing.

Mrs. Hamilton was called upon to speak and she responded with a splendid address, making as good a speech as any on the program. In spite of her 90 years, Mrs. Hamilton often walks to town; she never misses Sunday church service, and is as spry and alert as one many years younger.

Mr. Cook read the following paper which was enjoyed by the 70 guests present:

Mary Ibbotson, daughter of Henry and Mary Ibbotson, was born February 23, 1818, in the house that Gen. Mowk built near the town of Liscord, Liscordshire, England. She attended private school as taught by Miss Adams, from America.

She, with her parents and family, sailed from Plymouth May, 1833 for America, and arrived at New York in August of that year. Came up the Hudson river to Albany by steamboat, and from Albany to Buffalo by the Erie canal, which had been built only a short time, and crossed Lake Erie from Buffalo to Cleveland, O., and from Cleveland to Dresden on the Ohio canal, and from Dresden to Zanesville on a flatboat on the Muskingum river, remaining in Zanesville until the next spring. She settled on a farm about four miles west of Zanesville. Was married March 23, 1837 to Robert Hamilton, moved to the farm near Brownsville now owned by a son, Daniel G. Hamilton.

Mrs. Hamilton died 27 years ago, aged 74 years. From this union were born six sons and two daughters of whom survives only Daniel G. Four of the sons served in the Union army during the Civil war, three of whom gave up their lives for their country. Henry was a member of Co. G, 32d O. V. I., and died at Beverly, December, 1861. William was a member of the 135th O. V. I., was taken prisoner at North Mountain, Va., July 4, 1864, and was confined at Andersonville for about five months, when he was exchanged and sent to Annapolis, where he died shortly after from disease contracted while in prison. Captain Arthur Hamilton, adjutant of the 9th O. V. I., was wounded at the battle of Bentonville, N. C., and died the 6th of March, 1865, and was buried at Sheraw, S. C. Daniel G. Hamilton was a member of the 9th O. V. I. commanded by General W. D. Hamilton. He resides on the old homestead and is a prosperous farmer and is commander of Hamilton Post No. 311, G. A. R., which Post is named in honor of the three brothers and a cousin Robert J. Hamilton, brothers of Gen. W. D. Hamilton.

Mrs. Hamilton's faculties are well preserved, and she has been an active member of the Presbyterian church since 1837, and is the only one living of the charter members of Brownsville Presbyterian church which was organized May 29, 1846.

We thank God that he has spared Mother Hamilton for such a long and useful life, and we come this day as friends and neighbors to show her how highly we respect and esteem her character and life work in our midst.

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, Feb. 27.—The Iron Trade Review today says: Some concessions on prices of forging billets have been made in the Chicago territory, but as a rule, prices of billets are well maintained. Rumors of cutting on prices of structural shapes seem to have arisen from the low quotations which are being made on fabricating and erecting. The orders of the American Bridge company are expected to amount to about 20,000 tons for February, and independent concerns are doing a fair business. In the cast iron pipe market there is a firmer tone, and some fair orders have been taken.

The Great Northern railway has placed an order for 45,000 tons of rails, and further orders are expected. There is a fair inquiry for light rails. Prices on boiler tubes are being cut in the Chicago district.

A slight improvement in the demand for coke is recorded in Chicago and Cincinnati, but in the Pittsburgh district prices are demoralized and the demand is light. Dealers in old material are adhering firmly to the advanced prices recently announced.

WRECKED "FOLLY HUNTERS"

The world is literally filled with "wrecked" folly-hunters, says a very prominent medical man of great repute, who has obtained fees from many of New York's clubmen and wealthy livers amounting often to $10,000 for restoring their vitality.

Some druggists may not have in their arsenals the potent nature of the functions to the point aimed at by nature. He claims that thousands of men, and not a few women, are wrecked without vitality or the power to enjoy the great functions bestowed upon mankind. That thousands are groping for help, but the very knowledge of their disease and its peculiar humiliating nature causes them to become the prey of the electric belt fakers, the vendors of the electric and patent nostrum, who unmercifully fleece their victims out of his every dollar. Decrying such methods and the false (?) modesty which in most men leads to them, he has recently to the publication of the most successful prescription ever written for such troubles.

To obtain the full benefits, the patient must take the medicine as he advises the purchase of the ingredients separately to avoid the useless bulk extracts and weak concentrations, besides the fact that at home insures secrecy of one's affliction, and no one can be the wiser as the ingredients are used in different prescriptions of all kinds.

Get at once a compound drug store, "one ounce compound fluid extract of Hawthorn" and "one ounce compound fluid extract of Sarsaparilla compound" and let stand two hours. Then get "one ounce compound Essence Cardiol" and "one ounce Essence Cardiol" and mix. Mix all in half pint bottle, shake well and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one at bedtime.

The extraordinary cure is a bulk product, and the three main ingredients are pure one-natured, one-ounce bottles, packed in cartons, direct from chemical laboratories.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Hannah Hoskinson Hupp. Hannah Hoskinson, daughter of Andrew and Sarah Hoskinson, was born November 6th, 1823, departed this life January 5, 1908, aged 84 years, 1 month and 29 days. She was united in marriage to Daniel Hupp, May 2d, 1847, and this union was blessed with 7 children, five sons and two daughters. They are Mrs. Sarah Richter, Mr. James and Baisner Hupp of Linville, O., Mr. Charles Hupp of Columbus, Mrs. D. M. Hoskinson at the home, Mr. A. J. Hupp, who is in the west, Johnny Franklin Hupp preceded her to the better land at the age of 11 months and 27 days. She leaves 7 grand children, 2 great grandchildren, besides other relatives and friends to mourn her departure. The pallbearers were her six grandsons, Messrs. Daniel, William and Winfred Hupp, Erie Richter, Victor Meredith, and Byron Parr.

Mrs. Hupp was the last one of 12 brothers and sisters. All preceded her when young, excepting one brother and one sister, A. J. Hoskinson, who died at the age of 63 years, and Margaret Porter, who died at the age of 40 years.

Mrs. Hupp had lived on the farm on which she died 53 years. The farm was entered by her grandfather, Isaiah Hoskinson, who was the first justice of the peace of Licking county. Mrs. Hupp was a kind, indulgent wife, a dear loving mother and a good neighbor. She was a lover of her Bible and she said she was willing to go if it was the Lord's will—"thy will be done."

The funeral sermon and burial was held at Fairmount January 7th, conducted by Rev. Mr. Kuffner, a Baptist minister of the Gospel.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled
The soul His love had given;
And though his body members here,
The body is safe in Heaven.

Weep not that her toils are over,
Weep not that her work is done,
God grant we may rest as calmly
When our work, like hers, is done.
Till then we yield with gladness
Our mother to him to keep,
And rejoice in the sweet assurance
He giveth His beloved one.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er.
On the border land we left her,
Soon to meet and part no more.
When we leave this world of cares,
When we leave this world of pain,
We shall find our missing loved one
In our Father's mansion fair.

We miss thee, from our home, dear mother,
We miss thee from thy place.
A shadow on our hearts is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest love,
Ourselves and all that we love
We miss thee everywhere.

Farewell, dear mother! Sweet thy rest,
With years and worn with pain.
Farewell, till in some happy place
We shall behold thy face again.
The curse to miss thee is our pain,
And tender memories of thee keep.
Thine in the Lord to rest, for so
He giveth His beloved sleep.

We have lost our dear mother—
She has bid us all adieu.
She has gone to live in Heaven,
And her love is left to us here.
All is dark within our dwelling—
Lonely are our hearts today.
For the one we loved so dearly
Has forever passed away.

Oh dear one! How we loved her!
O how hard to give her up!
But an angel came for her,
And removed her from our flock.
And we long to cross the river—
Long to rest upon that shore—
There to see and know and love her
With the Savior evermore.

FINE PAINTING AT THE PURITY

A painting far out of the ordinary that was hung on the wall of "The Purity" today it attracting much attention, and well it may, for it is not only a fine work of art but has quite a history. "Atala" is the name of the picture, and it was painted many years ago in Paris, France, by Mrs. Sophie Gay, a pupil of Rosa Bonheur, and the mother of Mr. M. H. Gay, one of the proprietors of "The Purity" store.

"Atala" is taken from the French story "Chateaubrian," and represents her burial by the lover and monks. "Atala" was the white daughter of an Indian chief, who fell in love with a captive. He has been bound ready for torture when she cut the cords that bound him and told him to flee. He would not go without her and she, sooner than see him tortured, a storm they took refuge in a cave where the ringing of a monastery bell overcomes her with remorse and she swallows deadly poison. A monk discovers them and assists the lover.

Mr. Gay is justly proud of this possession. He took it with him to San Francisco and it was shipped from there to Newark.

NO NEED TO FEAR CONSUMPTION

Can be Checked in Its First Stages if Not Neglected, by a Simple Home-Made Remedy.

Notwithstanding the high death rate due to the great white plague, the progress made in recent years by scientists and physicians has robbed the dread disease of most of its terror, at least to those who are wise enough to act promptly when the first symptoms appear.

Out-of-door living in the great pine forests has accomplished remarkable cures, even in serious case. The pine ozone is heavy laden with guaiacol, which soothes and heals the afflicted membranes.

For those who cannot afford a trip to the pine woods, the simple, home-made remedy prescribed below is recommended as being just as certain and speedy in the great majority of cases of incipient consumption. It is the most effective thing known for coughs or colds, usually giving a cure in 24 hours.

Granulated Sugar Syrup 1 1/2 oz.
Pinex 2 1-2 oz.

Make the syrup by mixing the three-quarters of a pound of granulated sugar with water, heating and stirring until thick. The 2 1-2 ounces of Pinex can be had of any good druggist at a cost of fifty cents. Put the Pinex in a clean pint bottle, and add the Granulated Sugar Syrup until you have a full pint of the mixture. Shake well. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours, as required. Well corked it will keep for many months.

Pinex is the purest and most concentrated form of Norway white pine tar extract. It is very rich in guaiacol, and heals the membranes with remarkable rapidity.

It must not be thought, however, that any pine tar preparation will do. Be sure you get the pure Pinex. Your druggist either has it or will get it for you.

There was a large and appreciative audience in attendance and the program was one of unusual merit, it having been arranged by the Conservatory of Music, and consisted of vocal and instrumental solos, with the additional feature of the Conservatory quartet, which rendered "Flora's Holiday" in a very pleasing manner. DISAPPOINTED

ARE O. P. MAGNATES AT TURN OF AFFAIRS AT CANTON ON TUESDAY.

A. SIX CLUB LEAGUE

Instead of Eight Towns in Circuit as Was Hoped For—McKeesport Admitted.

After all the worry, fume and fuss, the Ohio-Pennsylvania league as it stands today will only consist of six clubs. This was decided at the meeting held in Canton Tuesday, when the magnates from the eastern section of the old O. P., and the magnates from the other teams gathered there in solemn conference.

Figure a fight as they would McKeesport of the old P. O. M. was the only other town they could land for their organization and six clubs will have to fight for the flag. The stand taken by the West Penn league and the Inter-State blocked effectually their plans for the admission of the towns necessary for the completion of an eight club league.

It was one of the stormiest sessions ever held in the history of Ohio baseball and for five long, tedious hours the magnates wrestled with the circuit problem. A dozen applications were threshed out and finally dumped into the waste basket. Finally when all hopes for an eight club circuit went glimmering, McKeesport was taken in and the six town club was formed. As the league now stands it consists of Youngstown, Akron, New Castle, Sharon, Canton and McKeesport.

So much time was consumed in the circuit wrangle that the drafting of the constitution was passed up. The committee on the constitution has made several changes which as yet have not been made public. This matter will have to be decided at another session of the owners when they meet in Youngstown March 3. The drafting of their schedule will probably make a slight delay in the opening of their season.

As the league is right now it ought to be a money maker, and while six towns will mean the same teams will play oftener, yet when the rivalry is keen this will be one point in favor of the small circuit. The jumps are all small and Sharon and Canton may develop into paying propositions this year.

WRATTEN

Has Signed With Newark and His Contract is in the Hands of Secretary Hopkins.

Smiling Irve Wratten has jumped into the Molder boat for the coming season, and the baseball bugs are due for a little rejoicing over the fact. His contract was received by Secretary Hopkins this morning from Manager Berryhill.

Wratten has for a number of years been with the Newark team, and in covering third sack his equal is hard to find. He was one of the most popular men on the team last season and is a hard, steady worker. He is one of the first old regulars to sign up.

While it was expected he would play here this season, yet the managers are breathing easier since his contract is safely locked up in the secretary's desk. Irve is in good form and has been taking good care of himself this winter and is anxious for the season to open.

APPETITES

Of Fans Will be Satisfied Soon For Things Will Happen in Bunches

With their appetites whetted by the reports of all the contracts sent out by Manager Bob, and the signing of contracts by the Molders, the fans of Newark will be given a good meal shortly when the schedule for the coming season will be announced. The meeting will be held in Columbus early in March and the final details before the season commences, will be cleaned up.

Things are in pretty fair shape just now, for President Quinn is a stickler for "not biting off more than he can chew," in other words, he won't let a lot of details pile up on him. As a result, the slate is fairly clean, and a short session of the magnates of the league will clean up all the work.

After the schedule is announced things will begin happening pretty fast, and the most eager fan will probably have his appetite or ball dope satisfied. Even while you are dodging snow storms or rain falls, and slipping and sliding around first on one ear and then on the other, the spring is getting closer all the time, and President Quinn claims he has just received a signed contract from Old Sol, that he will work hard this season to dish up good weather.

So if you do have to pay the coal man some of the money you saved for baseball tickets, don't get sore about it—you'll have the laugh on him all summer when you are sucking lemonade and ducking around sun strokes. Maybe this delay will give some Newark player a chance to get his arm or legs in better shape for the coming season. Cheer up, this weather can't last much more than a month.

LEAGUE

Matters For the Indiana-Ohio Crowd Are Very Unsettled—No Circuit in Sight.

The Indiana-Ohio league is another organization that is having more trouble than it can well take care of. Hamilton has dropped out because they couldn't get a park, Muncie, who had been counted on by the magnates as a certainty in the league, has been flirting and prancing around in the Ty Cobb class of towns, and so up to the present time there has been nothing doing.

Jessup of Richmond, the town that was first considered for the Ohio State before it was decided to make an all Ohio league out of it, is the king pin of the Hoosier-Buckeye aggregation. Maybe Marion, Ind., or Delphos may be induced to take the Hamilton franchise and land with the Van Wert, Piqua, Richmond crowd. If they do decide a league of the smaller towns may yet be patched up.

Thomas W. Perfit of Nelsonville, an infielder has signed with the Lancaster club. He comes well recommended and will be given a thorough try out with the team.

New Castle will have a prize fight between Tony Ross and Geo. Dempsey for the benefit of the baseball team.

"Home of the Umpires" is Rochester, N. Y. This city deserves the title as 19 umpires who work in the minor and major leagues claim Rochester as their home.

Jimmy Limeric, a seasoned pitcher of four or five years' experience with Sharon, New Castle and Akron, has been signed by Manager Marty Hogan of Zanesville.

Brother Henry Mathewson has accepted Sharon's terms, and to be sure of landing his brother of the New York Giants' star slapper, Manager Van Patterson immediately telegraphed Secretary Farrell of his acceptance. The Sharon Telegraph says Henry, like his famous brother, Christy, is a promising pitcher. There's news in this, in that Christy Mathewson is a promising pitcher. Most folks thought that he had already delivered the goods.

Toledo will send two of its young baseball players to Mansfield for a trial with the recently formed Ohio league club there. The boys are Frank Van Diver and Ivan Snyder, both of whom performed in the City league last season.

The management of the Lancaster Baseball club on Wednesday received the signed contract of infielder Humphreys, who will again play short.

Manager Frank Chance is opposed to making the pitchers' box level with the infield.

The Naps batteries will gather at Cleveland in the next two days and start for the south. The bunch will consist of Bemis, Clarke, Davidson, Jess, Rhoades, Berger, Liebhardt, Thielman, Clarkson, Lattimore, Graney and Chech.

DIXON'S

Monument Will be Unveiled on Decoration Day—Erected by Sporting Men.

The monument that was subscribed for by sporting men to mark the resting place of George Dixon, the colored boxer, will be unveiled Memorial day. Joe Humphreys, of New York, chairman of the committee that raised the fund, contracted with a Quincy, Mass., man for the monument. The statue will be made of

BURNS

Will Fight Jack Johnson in London—British Sportsmen Raise a Big Purse.

London, Eng., Feb. 27.—Tommy Burns, the heavyweight champion, and Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight may meet in this country to fight for the championship within the next few months. A syndicate of British sportsmen have offered a purse for a fight between Burns and Johnson, to take place in England. They have placed a deposit of $2000 with Messrs. Spalding, and Burns having accepted their terms, has deposited a forfeit. The inducements offered to Burns to meet Johnson are not disclosed, but the syndicate offers Johnson $5000, win, lose or draw.

The fight will be before June 10, and in a 16 foot ring. Twenty-five rounds will be the limit and Jeffries may act as referee.

BOWLING

The game of ten pins on the Music Hall alleys last night resulted in the Flicker club winning three straight games. This puts them at the top of the ladder in the city league where they belong. H. Atherton won high score 211, and Charles Lenard won high average. The first game was very exciting as the score will show.

BIG SIX TO MEET.

Announcement was made today that the midwinter meeting of the "Big Six" committee will be held at the Continent hotel on next Friday night. Secretary Page of Ohio Wesleyan, who issued the call, fixed that date and Columbus as the place rather than Delaware. Whether a Big Six track meet will be held this spring is the chief matter of business.

DENISON IS DEFEATED.
Delaware, O., Feb. 27.—Denison had little chance against Ohio Wesleyan here yesterday afternoon, the locals winning in easy fashion by a score of 36 to 17. The game was, for the most part, listlessly played and void of much of the spectacular.

In the opening period the Baptists could not locate the cage, annexing only seven points, while Wesleyan secured 20. Toward the close of the game Denison took a brace against Wesleyan's changed line up.

COMFORT FOR A DISCONSOLATE
A couple of Newark citizens were discussing the county local option bill and fretting lest old Licking should see fit to vote Newark dry. One kicked awfully at the passage of the bill, when a bystander remarked: "Look to your Bible for the comfort. Of course you know what Noah did about the first thing after he came out of the ark?"

The other admitted that he wasn't quite sure that he knew.

"Why," quoted the first speaker, "Noah began to be a husbandman, and he planted a vineyard."

The other took his cue and said no more.

SKULL BROKEN BY FALL.
Jackson, Feb. 27.—Walter Murdoch, aged 36, a miner, fell off a moving trolley car near Weston, Wednesday evening, rolling over an embankment and fracturing his skull. He lived at Hamden and has a wife and four children. His recovery is doubtful.

ENDS LIFE BY SHOOTING.
Pindall, Feb. 27.—W. M. Baker, 46 years, single, shot himself Wednesday at his home in North Baltimore, dying instantly. The cause is not known.

comfortably in an automobile, but this comment she answered rudely, saying she intended to please her brother and not me. I said to her, "Then I won't go with you."

"Thinking my wife would repent, I waited for a quarter of an hour. I then walked through the house to the kitchen, where I found my wife and Mr. Carkins in excited conversation. Suddenly Carkins launched a gross epithet at me in English and I replied in French.

"Repeat that in English if you dare," cried my wife.

"I repeated my statement in English, whereupon Carkins opened fire on me. I drew out my revolver in self-defense. We both emptied our weapons. Unfortunately I hit him at the first shot. Carkins staggered toward the door, murmuring, 'I am dying.'

"I rushed out to secure help and returned with relatives. Carkins was dead. We all agreed to say that it was a case of suicide."

Later Roy, accompanied by his wife, went to New York. He left New York for France when he learned his mother was ill. In conclusion Roy says, in his statement:

"It was clearly a case of shooting in self defense and my wife knows this as well as I do."

New York, Feb. 27.—Before leaving last night on the midnight train for Boston in response to a telegram from her attorney, John H. Bartlett of Portsmouth, Mrs. Roy was found in the home of her cousin, George E. Hodgdon, No. 5 East One Hundred and Twenty-first street.

Tall, with large dark eyes, black and abundant hair, a skin of remarkable whiteness, heightened still more by her mourning costume, Mrs. Roy swayed to and fro as she talked, frequently wringing her hands or sobbing convulsively as she told the details of the tragedy.

"On the evening of January 2, my husband, brother and myself were preparing to attend a musicale in which a young man named Parker was to sing. I had heard of his singer, but never met him. Nevertheless, I no sooner mentioned his name as I was dressing, than Paul interrupted me angrily, by saying: 'And it is to attract Parker that you are wearing your very finery tonight. That great picture hat you have selected is just to catch his eye.' I remonstrated, whereupon he commanded me to wear a shawl over my head, like the women in France do."

"Why quarrel over such a petty thing?" said my brother, who was also in the room, and then winked at me as a signal that I should leave the two men together.

"I laughingly reminded Paul that I was an American woman who had the right to dress as she pleased, and I added: 'But if my appearance does not suit you I am perfectly willing to stay at home.'"

"No, you would rather hear that young Parker sing," he retorted, and turning on my brother in a temper of fury my husband accused 'Sonny,' as I used to call him, as having incited all the trouble. He charged my brother with always siding against him and of stirring up rebellion in my mind.

"On the brink of hysterics I rushed from the room, but hardly had I passed the threshold than I heard three or four pistol shots ring out in quick succession. In another instant I dashed back into the room to find my brother falling to the floor, face down, with my husband standing over him with a pistol in his hand."

"Catching sight of me, 'Sonny' threw out his arms with the cry: 'Peachy, I'm shot.'"

"Peachy was my pet name. I cried for help. I cried to Paul, who had rushed out of the room, but he did not answer."

"Oh God! What have you done to 'Sonny'?" I screamed when at last I found him.

"But all he would say was: 'That's all right. I did it in self-defense.'"

"Wild with terror, I rushed out of the house, dressed as I was in evening dress and in the bitter cold of that January night, I ran over the fields to the home of my mother, Mrs. Kelley, situated about a half mile distant."

"As I was climbing the steps of the house, what was my horror to hear footsteps behind me. It was my husband. He had chased me all the way. He said:

"Don't tell. For God's sake, don't say a word. I did it in self-defense."

"You are a coward," I replied, and you 'murdered Sonny.'"

"He tried to seize me, but I ran into the house into my mother's room and cried:

"My God, our dear Sonny is shot.' My mother rushed into her husband's room and awakened him, saying he must get a doctor quickly. John Kelley is my stepfather's name. He grabbed up his clothes and from a neighbor's house he called up Dr. W. A. Junkins, our family physician."

"Paul followed me back to our home, all the way telling me that I should not tell on him or he would shoot me. He said that he feared he had been a fool to not kill me right after he shot Sonny, and then commit suicide. So when the doctor came and looked at the body, asking what had happened, I kept silent, as Paul said:

"The poor fellow committed suicide."

"The doctor made some sort of an investigation, I don't know exactly what, but finding a bullet wound on the dead man's forehead and a heavy cut over his nose where he had fallen on the floor, he took it for granted that it was a suicide."

"Then, again, it was a small community, where our family had lived so long that the physician would naturally not have suspected anything. The coroner and the undertaker came next morning and looked at the body, which was still lying face up on the floor. The coroner accepted the physician's report and called it suicide."

MEMORIAL SERVICE

HELD IN HONOR OF THE LATE
GOVERNOR OF OHIO JOHN
M. PATTISON.

Brilliant Eulogies Delivered by Four Speakers—Mrs. Pattison Was Present.

Columbus, O., Feb. 27.—As the sound of beautiful voices blended in beautiful song died away in the otherwise silent hall of the house of representatives, a little woman, clothed in mourning, her face exhibiting the intense suffering through which she had passed, sank back in her chair beside the stately figure of Governor Harris and sobbed silently. She had just heard from the lips of one of the most eloquent Ohioans a brilliant eulogy upon the life of one who had been nearest and dearest to her for many, many years; she had heard sung again that beautiful anthem, "Lead Kindly Light," which had been his favorite melody; she had, perchance, been thinking of the happiness which a voice now still had brought into her life—and the memory of the departed soul moved her to tears, which few in that large audience noticed.

It was one of the most intense moments of the memorial service to the late Governor John M. Pattison held on Wednesday evening. The widow sat with Governor and Mrs. Harris within a few feet of the rostrum from which four orations were delivered. Near her were her two daughters and ex-Governor and Mrs. Campbell.

The hall of the lower house was well filled with those who had come to pay silent tribute to the memory of a wise, good man—one who had been snatched from the enjoyment of the greatest office within the gift of the people of Ohio upon the very threshold of his administration.

Several times a sort of muffled applause burst forth when a speaker was most picturesque in his enunciation or when he exemplified the worth of a well-spent life in comparing the career and the personality of the dead executive with those who have held both greater and lesser positions. At all times were the auditors most respectful in their attention.

Before the speaker's desk reposed a draped painting in oil of the late Governor Pattison, and two pictures of the subject of the service were hung from the balustrade on the north and south sections of the gallery.

President James M. Williams of the senate presided. The speakers were Senator P. W. Ward, Hon. Judson Harmon, Judge James B. Swing of the common pleas court of Cincinnati and Representative Cyrus B. Winters. Vocal numbers were sung beautifully by a special quartet composed of Mrs. Edith Sage McDonald, Miss Alice Spears, Mr. Charles Dutcher and Mr. Oley Spears.

The address delivered by Senator West dealt with the events in the life of Governor Pattison and led nicely to the most striking oration of the evening, that delivered by Hon. Judson Harmon.

Medicine That is Medicine.

"I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Kessler, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at F. PRISON CENSUS WILL BE TAKEN

A census is to be taken of the inmates of the charitable and penal institutions of the country by United States immigration authorities this year for the purpose of determining the proportion of the foreign born population to be found therein. The census will include all penal, reform and charitable institutions in the state.

The last census of this character was made five years ago in this state by Jere Brown, one of the Cleveland immigration officers. It showed an amazingly large proportion of foreign born individuals inhabiting the prisons, hospitals and reform institutions of Ohio. These places are supposed, under the federal law, to keep the immigration department posted regarding these matters, but few of them live up to the requirement.

Every jail, hospital, workhouse and reformatory, as well as every asylum in Ohio will have to be visited.

It is believed the investigation will show many instances of people who have become public charges who could be cared for under the immigration law.

Banquet—Elegant Program of Music.

The annual inspection of Licking company, U. R. K. P., and the installation of the officers of the company, on Wednesday night, was an event that will long be remembered in Pythian circles of this city. Nearly all the members of the company were present, while a large delegation of officers and their ladies from Columbus graced the occasion.

From 8 to 9 o'clock the time was given up to enjoyments of a social nature, during which time Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swank, Fred Swank and Miss Swank furnished some charming music, which was greatly enjoyed by those present.

At 9 o'clock the work of inspection was made by Lieut. Col. A. G. Sherman of Columbus, who found everything pertaining to the company in excellent condition.

Following the inspection of the company the officers were installed as follows:

Captain, J. B. Courtney.
First Lieut., Eugene Woinski.
Second Lieut., Fred Swank.
Guard, Will Tanner.
Sentinel, Edward Swank.
Recorder, A. J. Crilly.
Treasurer, C. W. Snelling.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies of installation cards were engaged in and continued until supper was announced when all repaired to the banquet hall and partook of the delicious feast that had been spread. At the conclusion of the supper a number of toasts were responded to, Captain J. B. Courtney acting as toastmaster. Short talks were made by Col. Sherman, Capt. Isenagie, Capt. Vance of Columbus, and C. L. H. Long and Capt. C. F. Dean of Newark.

Among those from Columbus who were present were Col. A. G. Sherman and wife, Capt. Fred Vance and wife, Capt. Edward Doty and wife, Capt. George Isenagie and wife, Lieut. Edward Pierce and wife, Sergeant Lee Giesy and wife, Sergeant Shoemaker, Lieut. Whissen and Major C. W. Stone.
